ABOUT THIS WINERY

David Schildknecht of the Wine Advocate implores consumers to drink more Beaujolais calling it a "happy hunting ground for jaded or bargain-seeking wine lovers" continuing a trend that has brought much greater exposure to the region over the past few vintages. We are thrilled to again offer one of the region's most exciting producers Domaine Mathieu and Camille Lapierre.

TASTING NOTES

Sweetly perfumed of ripe cherries and turned earth, backed by a vibrant freshness and silky, caressing tannins.

PRODUCT NOTES

"Le Beaujolais" comes from 3 parcels of Beaujolais on our vines located in the commune of Lancié (neighbouring commune to Villié Morgon). Beaujolais is a carbonic maceration wine aged in vats. It is expressed with aromas of fresh and slightly spicy red fruits. A mid-way cuvée between "Raisins Gaulois" and Morgon.
