ABOUT THIS WINERY

In 2007, Monica Raspi closed her veterinarian clinic, picked up an enology book and started her adventure in making Chianti Classico taking over the family business. She calls it "one of the craziest and most wonderful decisions" she has ever made. Since then, she has taken the family estate from simple local winery to one of Chianti Classico's finest small estates.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Fermentation and maceration on the skins for 24 days at 25°C. Malolactic fermentation in steel. Aging in Slavonian 20 hl oak barrels for 15 months and in glass-lined cement tanks for 9 months, then at least 6 months in bottle.
