ABOUT THIS WINERY

Marc Gagnon left his job as director of winemaking at Bryant Family Vineyards in 2018. During dinner, Michael asked Marc what was next? A short time later, they realized that they wanted to work together. They both agreed that they wanted to explore the terroir and history of Napa Valley by making wines only from historic vineyards. Marc began calling his friends in the valley and researching the history of the first vineyards planted.

PRODUCT NOTES

The essence of the historic Monte Rosso Vineyard's bright red volcanic soils appeared to be magically carried over into the aromatics and color of the wine during fermentation. However, post elevage and assemblage, the wine transmogrified itself into a cabernet of blue/black complexion. The aromatics are effusive of freshly baked mixed berry pie, cinnamon, allspice, bay leaf, and sweet cacao nibs from the 60% new French Oak barrels.

On the palate, this wine is possibly the least tannic in ...
