ABOUT THIS WINERY

Parés Baltà is a family owned winery in the Penedès region of Spain with traditions dating back to the 18th century. All their wines have an organic certification and the vineyards are certified biodynamic by Demeter. The vineyards are dry-farmed and all wines are vegan. They have their own flock of sheep for fertilizing the vineyards as well as their own bees for pollination during the flowering season.

TASTING NOTES

The mandarin and spice notes are lifted by the white flower and pepper aromas from the Gewürztraminer skins. A medium body wine with a sleek mid-palate and fresh fruits such as mandarin, pomelo, and pear. The floral notes from the Gewürztraminer make an appearance giving the wine a bright and lively finish. A very fine and delicious orange wine.

PRODUCTION NOTES

A Natural wine made from 100% Xarel-lo with no sulfites added. As with all Pares Balta wines, the grapes are hand harvested with great care. Around 10% Gewürztraminer grape skins are added to the Xarel-lo must. Natural alcoholic fermentation with wild yeasts is in stainless steel tanks. The punch down of the grape skins happens twice a day during the maceration process. The skins stay in contact for 1 month and the wine takes on the wonderful amber color. Very little filtration is carried out o...
