ABOUT THIS WINERY

Located south of the village of Montalcino, Taleuti has been churning out some of the best value Brunello and Rosso in the region for over 3 decades. Antonio Galloni has commended the estate on striking "a gorgeous balance in a style that combines elements of modern and traditional styles."

TASTING NOTES

The Pian di Conte Brunello Riserva has a deep red colour and a fresh complex bouquet, rich in scents of ripe red fruit, plums, cherry, blackberry and raspberry. Accompanied by spicy scents of chocolate, tobacco and liquorice that develop with age. The palate features a toned body, compelling flavours with a good balance and smoothness, finishing off with sweet and elegant tannins.

PRODUCTION NOTES

A selection of 100% sangiovese, grown in the oldest vineyards that surround the estate (400 m MSL), is only used in exceptional vintages to create Riserva Pian di Conte. The south-easterly exposed soils are made up of sandy loam and plenty of heavy stone. The wine ages in 500-litre French oak tonneaux and 15/25-HI Slavonian oak barrels for at least 24 months, followed by a period of bottle ageing.
