ABOUT THIS WINERY

Jean-Marc Brocard's origins lie in the Côte d'Or, the son of a farmer from the village of Chaudenay-le-Château. It was an accident of marriage that brought him to wine, he married a vigneron's daughter. Jean-Marc planted his first vines in 1973 in the village of Préhy, the birth year of his son and now vineyard manager, Julien. Jean-Marc says "The truth of wine lies in the soil where it has grown."

TASTING NOTES

Fresh, elegant aromas of flowers and fruit. On the palate, it is distinguished from other Grands Crus by its own particular subtlety: a delicious blend of softness and liveliness. Light yet rounded, it shows great charm from a very early age.

PRODUCT NOTES

Out of all the Chablis Grands Crus, the Vaudésir is the most delicate. It will charm you with its lively yet elegant character. The slopes of the Vaudésir valley are steep and express a particularly fine minerality.
