ABOUT THIS WINERY

Tesselaarsdal, owned and operated by Berene Sauls is named after the small village where she grew up. Tesselaarsdal is situated in the Hemel-en-Aarde Valley, Hermanus in the Overberg region. After working at Hamilton Russell vineyards in various roles for 15 years, Anthony Hamilton Russell assisted Berene in starting her own wine business. Berene's wines have garnered praise in a short time, a testament to her drive, passion, and hard work.

TASTING NOTES

An elegant wine that reflects roundness and a crisp acidity with subtle defining notes of white pear and lemon toast. Reflective of site, this cool climate medium bodied wine is both silky and fresh with an elegant long finish.

PRODUCT NOTES

The 2022 growing season had a fair amount of rain falling before the grapes started to ripen. This did not have a negative effect as the natural irrigation helped to reduce stress levels on the vines, allowing them to function optimally during the ripening period. The vineyards had even budburst and the initial growth was even. Grape quality was very favourable, leading to an exceptional vintage.
