ABOUT THIS WINERY

Nestled between the Dolomite Mountains and the Adriatic Sea are the steep hills of Valdobbiadene in northern Veneto, the heart of Prosecco Superiore. Ancient documents place the Bisol family tending to this area's heroic viticulture since 1542.

TASTING NOTES

On the nose: fresh and elegant, with a well-proportioned wave of meadow flowers that yields to a bouquet of delicious fruit.

In the mouth: the perfume-like fruit offers notes of pear and apple, while the rich, precise flavour completes the impression of harmony.
