ABOUT THIS WINERY

Part of the Catena family of wines, High Note hails from the high elevations of the Uco Valley in Mendoza, Argentina. The wines are a blend of four different vineyards located at the foot of the Andes at 3,300 to 5,000 ft above sea level. Keeping true to Catena's quest to making high quality terroir-driven wines, the winemaker Leopoldo Kuschnaroff crafts wines reflective of the terroir from the four vineyards.

TASTING NOTES

Grapes are sourced from five vineyards with sandy loam soils, ranging in elevation 3,300 - 5,000 feet above sea level. Vista Flores vineyard has flavors of spice, red fruits and minerality. La Consulta adds black fruit and mid-palate weight while Altamira's fruit has notes of violets. Eugenio Bustos vineyard offers racy acidity and floral notes while adding to the violet color. Gualtallary vineyard, at the highest altitude, brings deep purple color and additional floral and black fruit notes bal...

PRODUCT NOTES

Intense sunlight, cool temperatures and dry conditions high in the Andes foothills combine perfectly to create the brilliant violet color, rich blackberry and black cherry aromas, and velvety texture of our Uco Valley Malbec.
