ABOUT THIS WINERY

Situated in the heart of the Mosel's finest vineyards, the Max Ferdinand Richter estate has been in the family for over 300 years. The family owns 48 acres of priceless vines on the magnificent stretch of the river between Erden and Brauenberg including all the best sites: Graacher Himmelreich, Wehlener Sonnenuhr and Brauenberger Juffer and Richter's monopole Veldenzer Eilsenberg. This is quite literally an embarrassment of riches.

TASTING NOTES

Ripe, yellow fruit, honey, and elegant floral notes. On palate the taste of pure ripeness, intense mineral notes and a typical, lean structure.

PRODUCT NOTES

The Sonnenuhr is framed by rugged slate rocks, lending its name to the surrounding vineyards. This extremely steep site is dominated by bluish Devonian clayslate with a very stony character that provides optimal airing for the growth of the vines. South/southwestern exposure further reinforces the idyllic growing conditions in these vineyards, which are watered by runoff from heavily wooded mountains above.
