ABOUT THIS WINERY

Nestled between the Dolomite Mountains and the Adriatic Sea are the steep hills of Valdobbiadene in northern Veneto, the heart of Prosecco Superiore. Ancient documents place the Bisol family tending to this area's heroic viticulture since 1542.

TASTING NOTES

There is a lovely, subtle steely minerality in the background which adds an extra layer of interest. A food-friendly wine; try with juicy barbecued king prawns.

PRODUCT NOTES

The DOCG of Cartizze is at the top of the Prosecco quality pyramid.
