ABOUT THIS WINERY

Domaine Nico was born from the Catena family's affinity to the great wines of Burgundy and was inspired by Laura's teenage years in France where she first learned of regionality. The journey began in the early 1990's when her father Nicolás planted Pinot Noir Dijon clones in the high-altitude vineyards in Mendoza, located in three different areas in Tupungato in the Uco Valley.

TASTING NOTES

Red-mineral fruit, with slight reduction and a touch of citrus. Orange peel. Earthy character. High Acidity and low alcohol content. Vertical wine. Layered tannins.

PRODUCT NOTES

"The scholar" in the feminine, pays homage to scholarly women, who can be feminine and serious at the same time, like this wine.
