ABOUT THIS WINERY

Domaine Nico was born from the Catena family's affinity to the great wines of Burgundy and was inspired by Laura's teenage years in France where she first learned of regionality. The journey began in the early 1990's when her father Nicolás planted Pinot Noir Dijon clones in the high-altitude vineyards in Mendoza, located in three different areas in Tupungato in the Uco Valley.

TASTING NOTES

Red fruit and presence of herbs such as thyme, spices and clove. Medium-high acidity. Low alcohol. Slightly mineral and vertical mouth. Integrated oak. Grainy tannins.

PRODUCT NOTES

A play on the famous pornographic novel Histoire d'O by Pauline Réage - this parcel makes a very "sexy" wine and the name seemed appropriate.

In both La Savante and Histoire d'A we use whole clusters during fermentation to highlight the texture and graininess of the wines. La Savante is more mineral, vertical, with spicy red fruits. Histoire d'A is more generous due to the greater sun exposure, with cinnamon, clove and a perceived sweetness to the tannins.
