ABOUT THIS WINERY

Located in the commune of Radda in Chianti, The Poggerino winery is family owned and operated by Piero and Benedetta Lanza, who are descendants of one of Florence's oldest families and they have been managing it since 1988. At Poggerino the focus is on the three Chianti Classico wines, but they also produce a Rosato, Toscano IGT wines and a spumante 100% Sangiovese 'metodo classico' that is aged on the lees for at least 5 years before release.

TASTING NOTES

Bright ruby red colour. On the nose notes of blackberries, leather, cherries and red currant with a touch of liquorice and vanilla. Sweet and persistent tannins.

PRODUCTION NOTES

After a careful selection in the vineyard the grapes are destemmed and pressed. The alcoholic fermentation begins without the addition of selected yeasts and proceeds at 28°/30°C. The entire process of vinification and maceration takes place in concrete tanks for approximately 35 days with pump overs and manual punch downs. In December the new wine is racked to casks of 20/25hl of Slavonian oak and tonneau of 4/5hl of French oak where the malolactic fermentation takes place. After ageing for ...
