ABOUT THIS WINERY

Jean-Marc Brocard's origins lie in the Côte d'Or, the son of a farmer from the village of Chaudenay-le-Château. It was an accident of marriage that brought him to wine, he married a vigneron's daughter. Jean-Marc planted his first vines in 1973 in the village of Préhly, the birth year of his son and now vineyard manager, Julien. Jean-Marc says "The truth of wine lies in the soil where it has grown."

TASTING NOTES

A Library Release, sourced in 2023, directly from the cellar of Domaine Jean Marc Brocard. Cote de Jouan 2013 is in beautiful shape at the moment. Classic Chablis tension. There is weight here, contrasted with crystalline acidity. Aromas of orchard fruit, nutmeg with just a hint of honeyed age. This is in a beautiful place, but all the structure is here for bottles to easily last another decade.

PRODUCT NOTES

Côte de Jouan lies on a on a moderate to steep slope facing south and east near the village of Courgis on the left bank of the Serein river. Early morning sunlight and good air circulation mean the grapes ripen properly without being affected by frost. The soil is typical of Chablis with clay and limestone marls from the Kimmeridgian.

PRODUCTION NOTES

After gentle pressing in a pneumatic press and cold settling, native years kick off the alcoholic fermentation in stainless steel tanks followed by a full malolactic fermentation. The wine is aged for 14 months, 30% in barrels and 70% steel tanks.
