ABOUT THIS WINERY

Aldo Conterno passed on his eponymous estate to his three sons Franco, Stefano, and Giacomo in the late 1990's. In the early 2000s the trio undertook a massive shift in the vineyards, dramatically reducing the estate's already low yields while also making changes to the winemaking. The vines are farmed organically, and the wines have never been better. The estate produces stunning Chardonnay and profound Barolo from the Bussia Cru in Monforte.

PRODUCT NOTES

Aldo Conterno's Barolo Bussia is produced from five hectares of prime vineyards in Bussia Soprano, the original section of what has become a rather large vineyard in recent years. These five hectares are spread across three separate parcels with vines averaging 35-40 years old, with no vines younger than 20 years old.
