ABOUT THIS WINERY

Podere Orma is located in Bolgheri, where its immediate neighbours include both Sassicaia and Ornellaia. The region comprises some of the most legendary terroir in all of Italy. Since its inception in 2005 Orma (which translates to "mark" or "footprint") has always received the kind of stellar reviews its privileged position demands; when the prices of the great neighbouring estates are considered, Podere Orma emerges as a killer value.

TASTING NOTES

Plantings of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Cabernet Franc are brought to full ripeness by the brilliant summer sunshine for which this part of Tuscany is renowned. Gentle and consistent sea breezes keep the vines ventilated and free of rot despite dense plantings of 2,960 vines/acre. More than any other characteristic, however, Orma's vineyards are defined by their soil. Here, the soil is composed of a high proportion of sand and pebbles with considerably less clay than other coastal areas in ...

PRODUCT NOTES

Orma is the acclaimed wine made at a single estate of the same name in Bolgheri, coastal Tuscany's premier wine village. Originally purchased in the mid-1990's by Arezzo-born business mogul, Antonio Moretti, Orma is said to be 'well-born' due to the estate's location next to Tenuta dell'Ornellaia and amid the towering cypress trees of the famed Via Bolgherese. With a profile that finds equilibrium between power and finesse, Orma reflects both the unique terroir and the ambitious spir...
