ABOUT THIS WINERY

A family-owned business, L'Ecole N° 41 was founded by Jean and Baker Ferguson. Today, the winery is owned and operated by their daughter and son-in-law, Megan and Martin Clubb. Built in 1915, the schoolhouse is located in historic Frenchtown, a small community just west of Walla Walla, Washington. L'Ecole N° 41 has been honoured as Wine & Spirits Magazine Winery of the Year for 14 consecutive years (2002-2015).

TASTING NOTES

An excellent Frenchtown vintage showing bright fruit aromatics, from wild berries and black cherry to dark plum framed on a medium-bodied structure. An easy-drinking wine, its fruit-forward profile is accented by violets and savory thyme. Vivid flavors carry through to a delicious finish.

PRODUCT NOTES

An overall mild growing season and challenging harvest have nonetheless delivered a high-quality vintage for L'Ecole. A cold and snowy February/March delayed field pruning, resulting in budbreak late April to early May. A warm May accelerated canopy growth and the onset of bloom. Cooler July temperatures moderated heat unit accumulation with veraison delayed 7 to 10 days from normal. August brought customary warm weather, with only a few heat spikes over 100°F. A warm early September initiate...

PRODUCTION NOTES

Over 35 years of meticulous vineyard management and winemaking experience are fundamental to the quality of the L'Ecole no. 41 wines and their reputation for excellence. They are engaged in growing and making 100% of their own wines. The wine was aged 9 months in 25% neutral oak barrels and 75% stainless steel. The wine is bottled with no added sulfites.
