ABOUT THIS WINERY

Jean-Marc Brocard's origins lie in the Côte d'Or, the son of a farmer from the village of Chaudenay-le-Château. It was an accident of marriage that brought him to wine, he married a vigneron's daughter. Jean-Marc planted his first vines in 1973 in the village of Préhy, the birth year of his son and now vineyard manager, Julien. Jean-Marc says "The truth of wine lies in the soil where it has grown."

TASTING NOTES

Nose oyster shell, spicy, bark orange. In the mouth: fine minerality, mandarin aroma. An energizing and digestible wine.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Implanted at the leftmost West/Southwestern end of the Grands Crus, the Grand Cru Bougros shows great strength of character and will go wonderfully well with your fish dishes.
