ABOUT THIS WINERY

If Azelia's Barolos needed to be described in a single word, that word would be 'elegant'. The wines have always been a pure expression of nebbiolo, silky textured and harmonious, never over extracted or excessively oaky. If their intrinsic balance makes them approachable when they are young, it also makes them supremely age-worthy. Azelia is unquestionably one of Langhe's best value producers.

TASTING NOTES

Intense and bright, with a strong but gentle character, offering pure cherry, plum and blackberry aromas. On the palate, dark fruit flavors are accented by earth and leather. Balanced acidity finishing off with a dusty baker's chocolate note.

PRODUCT NOTES

The fruit comes from 60-year-old vines on a hilltop site, the "point," or punta, in Castiglione Falletto.
