ABOUT THIS WINERY

Argiano is a beautiful estate in the southern western portion of the Brunello di Montalcino DOCG. The estate has a long history of excellence in the region and is reaching new heights under new ownership. The 120 ha property follows the traditional Tuscan model of mixed land use featuring vineyards, olive groves and woodlands. Argiano produces brilliant examples of Brunello and Rosso di Montalcino as well as Super Tuscan IGT wines.

TASTING NOTES

Fruity notes with a touch of oak. Medium-bodied, savory mouthfeel with characteristic red fruits and underbrush notes. Quite persistent with a nice freshness that marries well with medium tannin.

PRODUCT NOTES

Non Confunditur's initials N.C., are often thought to refer to Noemi Cinzano, Argiano's longstanding owner. The truth however is 'Non Confunditur' is the Latin term written on Argiano's crest and was the motto of the former owners, the Lovateli Gaetani d'Aragona family. We baptized this wine as Non Confunditur to honor the prestigious and glorious past of Argiano. Non Confunditur is a unique marriage of both Tuscan and French grapes. Since 2002, NC has taken its place next to the best Tuscan...

PRODUCTION NOTES

Pre-fermentation maceration for two days, fermentation and maceration on the skins for about two weeks. Alcoholic and malolactic fermentation in temperature-controlled steel tanks. Vinification by variety and separate aging. A few months in third- and fourth-passage French barriques and tonneaux.
