ABOUT THIS WINERY

Sokol Blosser is one of the pioneering wineries of the now-prominent Oregon wine industry. The winery is family owned and operated, with the second generation now at the helm: siblings Alex and Alison Sokol Blosser. Today the winery farms 128 acres of vineyards and creates wines of world-class quality, produced in a sustainable manner, which reflect the distinctive flavors of the grapes, soil and climate.

TASTING NOTES

The nose is rich with mushroom, truffle, and forest floor, accompanied by black cherry, cranberry, and clove. The palate reflects the cranberry, black cherry and truffle, but also introduces a dash of black pepper with medium tannins and acidity on the finish. This wine pairs beautifully with the bounty of Oregon, like wild mushroom risotto or grilled lamb with an herbed, hazelnut crust.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The grapes were carefully hand harvested between September 15th and 28th. Some vineyard sections were harvested based on acid levels to retain delicacy and some were focused on higher intensity of fruit flavors with ripeness reaching 25°Brix. All fruit was sorted by hand to remove any flawed bunches and de-stemmed directly into 3-ton fermenters. Fermentation was conducted with a combination of native house yeast, commercial yeast, and ambient/uninoculated ferments; all aspects coming together t...
