LATOUR-GIRAUD

Meursault 1er cru Genevrières Cuvée des Pierre 2014

95 POINTS

“ (from 50+ year old vines). An expressive and highly complex nose of dried flowers, white pear and citrus notes introduces borderline painfully intense, pure and impressively powerful big-bodied flavors that possess a discreet touch of minerality on the once again palate staining, tension-filled and driving finish. There is so much volume that this is almost unctuous yet the lemon-tinged acidity allows this to avoid any sense of heaviness on the muscular, indeed almost brutal finish. I would strongly advise not even thinking about opening a bottle of this massive wine before it has at least 5 years of age on it. I should further note that this is not a Genevrieres with the usual amount of refinement but rather one of overt power and punch that is dramatic in its intensity and drive. Color me seriously impressed by just the sheer scale of this wine. ”

About Burghound.com

Burghound.com is the result of a nearly lifelong passion for the wines of Burgundy. For more than 30 years, I have been collecting the wines and visiting the region. Each year I spend nearly five months visiting, researching, tasting, exploring and evaluating. Burgundy is my obsession really. Expanding on my coverage of the coveted pinot noir grape, each issue provides continuous coverage of both Oregon and California pinot noir, with rotating coverage of Champagne and occasional special reports from other pinot producing regions.
