92 POINTS

“Bright, light yellow. Ripe peach and a buttery note on the nose. In a distinctly rich, broad style compared to Latour's top Meursault bottlings in 2014, but still with a firm mineral edge and a hint of menthol to its ripe stone fruit flavors. Finishes tactile, strong and long. Not yet especially complex, this premier cru will need at least four or five years in the cellar to develop more personality.”
