FAIVELEY

Corton Grand cru Clos des Cortons 2016

(95-97) Points

This vineyard was purchased in 1872, and Faiveley are the only living family whose name is part of a Grand Cru appellation. 'This is the most consistent vineyard we have,' says Erwan. Its 2.7 hecatres always deliver good yields, too. One-year old Taransaud barrel. Refined, floral raspberry fruit nose. Very fine, pure, fruity and expressive with good acidity and great acidity. Perfumed and pretty but also with seriousness.
