93 POINTS

Vivid straw-green. Pear and dried fruit on the rich, ripe nose and palate. Round and suave, but also fresh and juicy, offering a strong saline note and insidious sweetness on the long, precise finish. Extremely tannic and very much in the ample style of the 2015 vintage and of the Mandelberg, a very calcaire site that is known for its warmer microclimate (in fact, almond trees manage to grow there). Really lovely wine - in fact, one of the prettiest young Cuvée Ms I remember having. Trimbach tells me that in 2016, should they like the wine and decide to bottle it (it depends on the vintage, clearly), they will name the wine Mandelberg outright (so no more Cuvée M).
