JEB DUNNUCK

97 POINTS

“ Loads of lemon curd, crushed citrus, white flowers, and salty sea breeze as well as an incredible minerality all emerge from the 2017 Châteauneuf Du Pape Blanc. It's concentrated, layered, and has a Burgundian sense of purity, elegance, and length on the palate. While 2017 was a hot, sunny year, it has a brilliant sense of freshness. It's approachable today, but it will benefit from 2-4 years of bottle age and keep for two decades or more. ”
