AZELIA

Barolo 2016

Decanter

the world's best wine magazine

92 POINTS

As pleased as Azelia's proprietor Luigi Scavino is with 2016, he doesn't consider it a classic vintage due to its relatively accessible character. Indeed, the tannins here are smooth and round on the entry, though they layer up with a fine, sandy texture and cling to the finish. Racy, linear acidity makes for a beguiling juxtaposition. Throughout, anise, sage and eucalyptus accent pretty woodland berries. This brings together seven crus with the backbone coming from Cerretta and Broglio in Serralunga d'Alba.
