EL ENEMIGO

Malbec 2017

Descor Chados

93 POINTS

This is Aleanna's most basic malbec, and like all of the house's malbecs, it comes from the Adrianna Vineyard, 1,450 meters up in Gualtallary. The soils there are chalky, and the mountain climate marks the palate of this wine as well as its fruits. It owes those firm, tense tannins to the soil and its tart red fruits to the climate, all in a malbec that offers a very good approach to Gualtallary wines. This year's version is particularly clean and fresh, but most of all, it's especially nervy and tense. One of the best versions of this wine.

About Descorchados

Descorchados is the main reference for South American wines. Since 1999, this guide has been analyzing the wine scene in this part of the world, giving consumers and trade an overview of what Argentina, Chile and Uruguay produce, from the most expensive to the cheapest wines; from big wine companies to tiny artisanal producers. In order to expand our coverage, this year we have included the sparkling wines from Brazil, an amazing journey you must taste.
