FAIVELEY

Mazis-Chambertin Grand cru 2014

Wine Spectator

95 POINTS

“

Brilliant aromas and flavors of cherry, strawberry, and currant highlight this complex red, which is intense, elegant and incredibly mineral, building to a kaleidoscopic finish. Structured and harmonious, with terrific aging potential.

About Wine Spectator

Wine Spectator editors review more than 15,000 wines each year in blind tastings. Every issue of Wine Spectator magazine contains from 400 to more than 1,000 wine reviews with detailed tasting notes and analysis. We set stringent standards for ourselves and rely on the proven ability and experience of our editors as tasters and critics.
