JEAN-LOUIS CHAVE

Hermitage Blanc 2019

JEB DUNNUCK

98 POINTS

“ Another incredible white from this family is the 2019 Hermitage Blanc, a powerful, concentrated, and remarkably pure Hermitage that has laser-like focus as well as textbook Marsanne notes of quince, green almond, powdered rock, licorice, and spice. It's still tight, focused, and inward at present, yet it reminds me of the 2018 with its purity and rare mix of power and elegance. It's worth trying a bottle any time over the coming 3-5 years, but after that, I'd recommend waiting until after 2031. ”

About Jeb Dunnuck

The JebDunnuck.com website is a subscription based, bi-monthly publication dedicated to providing cutting-edge, independent commentary and reviews on the top wines and wine regions of the world. While my core editorial focus is to cover Southern France, Bordeaux, California and Washington, I also plan to give readers periodic articles on other world-class and emerging global wine regions, as well as in-depth coverage on the wine portfolios of top US importers.
