JEAN-LOUIS CHAVE

Hermitage Blanc 2019

JEB DUNNUCK

98 POINTS

“

Another incredible white from this family is the 2019 Hermitage Blanc, a powerful, concentrated, and remarkably pure Hermitage that has laser-like focus as well as textbook Marsanne notes of quince, green almond, powdered rock, licorice, and spice. It's still tight, focused, and inward at present, yet it reminds me of the 2018 with its purity and rare mix of power and elegance. It's worth trying a bottle any time over the coming 3-5 years, but after that, I'd recommend waiting until after 2031.
