Jancis Robinson

JancisRobinson.com

Tasted blind. Really juicy and inviting aromas of biltong, violet and crushed blackberries. A taut palate with good fresh acidity throughout. The fruit shows good concentration – fig, pastille notes and blackberry with detailed (but firm) tannins. Well-structured with an attractive purity of fruit.

À propos de Jancis Robinson

Described by Decanter magazine as 'the most respected wine critic and journalist in the world', Jancis writes daily for JancisRobinson.com (voted first-ever Wine Website of the Year in the Louis Roederer International Wine Writers Awards 2010), weekly for The Financial Times, and bi-monthly for a column that is syndicated around the world. She is also editor of The Oxford Companion to Wine, co-author with Hugh Johnson of The World Atlas of Wine and co-author of Wine Grapes - A complete guide to 1,368 vine varieties, including their origins and flavours, each of these books recognised as a standard reference worldwide.
