92 POINTS

The 2019 Syrah Maharis is rich and toasty in the glass, with currants and blackberries, a dusting of balsamic spice and mocha forming its bouquet. This is velvety in texture with cooling acidity to balance its opulently ripe black fruits and sweet inner herbal tones. It leaves a coating of fine tannins, as hints of salted licorice and violet inner florals linger incredibly long. The 2019 Maharis is a big wine to be sure, yet harmonious. That said, it could use a year or two of cellaring to ease its structural heft.

À propos de Vinous

Vinous is our vision of a modern-day wine media platform that places consumers inside the conversation and encourages them to form their own opinions. Vinous brings together professional reviews, the stories behind the wines and the perspectives of our readers in over 55 countries using multimedia and leading edge technology. We visit hundreds of wineries each year, allowing us to offer unparalleled, first-hand insight into the world of wine. Since launching in May 2013, Vinous has become one of the fastest growing wine content websites in the world. Regular features include comprehensive reviews of new releases from the world's major wine regions, vertical tastings and retrospectives, in-depth videos shot on location, Vinous Favorites - our top picks under $25, Cellar Favorites - which features older wines, and Vinous Table, where we profile our top eating and drinking destinations. In November 2014, Vinous announced its acquisition of Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar. Please also see the Frequently Asked Questions.
