VIDAL-FLEURY

Côte Rôtie La Chatillonne 2016

Wine Spectator

92 POINTS

“Gentle bay leaf and thyme notes add nuance to a nose of black cherries in the 2016 Cote Rotie la Chatillonne Cote Blonde. Medium to full-bodied, it's supple and creamy on the palate, with a long finish marked by bitter chocolate notes.”

About Wine Spectator

Wine Spectator editors review more than 15,000 wines each year in blind tastings. Every issue of Wine Spectator magazine contains from 400 to more than 1,000 wine reviews with detailed tasting notes and analysis. We set stringent standards for ourselves and rely on the proven ability and experience of our editors as tasters and critics.
