91 POINTS

"Bright medium yellow. Ripe stone fruits and hazelnut on the nose; very Meursault. Yellow fruit and honey flavors are complicated by saline minerality and framed by firm-edged acidity. Shows building sweetness with air but this is also impressively taut for the vintage. Finishes seriously chewy, saline and pure. These old vines were especially vulnerable to the cold temperatures during flowering, said Latour, and the yield here was barely 30 hectoliters per hectare. The 4.8 grams per liter of acidity is the highest level among these 2011s."

About Vinous

Vinous is our vision of a modern-day wine media platform that places consumers inside the conversation and encourages them to form their own opinions. Vinous brings together professional reviews, the stories behind the wines and the perspectives of our readers in over 55 countries using multimedia and leading edge technology. We visit hundreds of wineries each year, allowing us to offer unparalleled, first-hand insight into the world of wine. Since launching in May 2013, Vinous has become one of the fastest growing wine content websites in the world. Regular features include comprehensive reviews of new releases from the world's major wine regions, vertical tastings and retrospectives, in-depth videos shot on location, Vinous Favorites - our top picks under $25, Cellar Favorites - which features older wines, and Vinous Table, where we profile our top eating and drinking destinations. In November 2014, Vinous announced its acquisition of Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar. Please also see the Frequently Asked Questions.
