“ This is a fragrant Rosso di Montalcino, reminiscent of a pinot, with roasted herbs, cedar, rose petals and tea leaves. Shows good depth and definition on the palate for a Rosso and frames loads of forest fruit in a sleek case of firm yet ripe tannins. ”

About James Suckling

JamesSuckling.com reflects my three decades of experience as a journalist and a wine critic through the tasting notes, videos, blogs, and events. This website focuses on the great wines of the world including Italy, Bordeaux, Champagne, Australia, New Zealand, California, Chile and Argentina. We are always expanding our coverage. If you have a passion for food, wine, cigars or other good things in life, this is a website for you!
