93 POINTS

“The cabernet franc (with a bit of malbec) from the chalky soils of the Adrianna Vineyard in Gualtallary tends to leave the herbal notes aside and remains a bit mute on the nose. The palate, however, in this case—and in many others—is full of fiber and very firm, tense structure, while the flavors of tart red fruits have a little party.”

About Descorchados

Descorchados is the main reference for South American wines. Since 1999, this guide has been analyzing the wine scene in this part of the world, giving consumers and trade an overview of what Argentina, Chile and Uruguay produce, from the most expensive to the cheapest wines; from big wine companies to tiny artesanal producers. In order to expand our coverage, this year we have included the sparkling wines from Brazil, an amazing journey you must taste.
