Malbec Pizzella 2019

DescorChadOS

93 POINTS

This vineyard from the Pizzella family was planted in the early 2000s. 50% of the wine was aged in barrels of different previous uses, and the other 50% remained in stainless steel for 10 months. The wine has the character of Altamira malbec, especially of the reds that come from stony soils, which offer a rigid, sharp texture and, in this case, are rich in tart red fruits and notes of violets.

About Descorchados

Descorchados is the main reference for South American wines. Since 1999, this guide has been analyzing the wine scene in this part of the world, giving consumers and trade an overview of what Argentina, Chile and Uruguay produce, from the most expensive to the cheapest wines; from big wine companies to tiny artesanal producers. In order to expand our coverage, this year we have included the sparkling wines from Brazil, an amazing journey you must taste.
