JEAN-LOUIS CHAVE

Hermitage Blanc 2019

Decanter
the world's best wine magazine

96 POINTS

“ A tasting of barrel samples of different lieux-dits: Les Rocoules, Péléal and Ermite paint a picture of an exceptionally rich and opulent white Hermitage, with great textural generosity and fat, relatively low acidity and fairly high alcohol. The main problem was the speed with which the grapes were taking on sugar at the end of the season, so all the whites were picked in just two days (normally it takes five days), including a Sunday - only the second time they have done this, the previous time due to rot. An atypically large-framed vintage, that will provide plenty of succulent, rich pleasure over the years. ”
