

Director's Cut Zinfandel 2017

95 POINTS

“Enhanced nose dominated by American Oak. Complex vanilla, coconut complemented the sweet core of black fruit. The palate has a delicious blue fruit and violet background. Silky tannins balanced with acidity that have excellent finesse for the style of wine.”

About IWSC International Wine & Spirit Competition

When wine chemist Anton Massel created the International Wine & Spirit Competition in 1969, his aim – as it remains to this day – was to reward excellence in drinks worldwide, ensuring recognition for the very best wines and spirits. The IWSC is proud to set the international benchmark for quality, standing out in the crowded world of drinks awards with hundreds of global experts – including buyers, producers, distillers, sommeliers, distributors and influencers – judging wines and spirits throughout the year.
