DIAMOND CREEK

Diamond Creek Gravelly Meadow 2019

Wine Spectator

93 POINTS

“Quite brambly in feel, with zesty acidity and a pronounced savory streak adding a perkiness to the mix of blackberry, black cherry and black currant fruit. Floral, anise and warm earth notes fill in on the finish. Feels a bit raw and untamed now, in the old-school style. Cellaring is required so this can modulate itself. Best from 2024 through 2038.”

About Wine Spectator

Wine Spectator editors review more than 15,000 wines each year in blind tastings. Every issue of Wine Spectator magazine contains from 400 to more than 1,000 wine reviews with detailed tasting notes and analysis. We set stringent standards for ourselves and rely on the proven ability and experience of our editors as tasters and critics.
